COMMUNITY COMMISSION FOR PUBLIC SAFETY AND ACCOUNTABILITY SELECTS EXECUTIVE SEARCH FIRM TO ASSIST IN SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH

CHICAGO - Public Sector Search & Consulting, a leading executive search and leadership advisory firm, has been selected by the Community Commission for Public Safety and Accountability (CCPSA) to assist in the search for the next Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department.

Public Sector Search & Consulting works exclusively on searches for police executives. Over the last five years, the firm has led more than 50 searches, including 18 in major U.S. cities. Their work in Chicago will be led by two retired police chiefs. Public Sector Search & Consulting's extensive expertise in executive search and leadership development in the public sector make them an ideal partner to help the CCPSA identify and attract the right candidate to lead the Chicago Police Department.

"We are thrilled to collaborate with Public Sector Search & Consulting in the search for the next Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department," said Commissioner Remel Terry. "Their track record for attracting outstanding police leaders, and their commitment to inclusivity and community engagement aligns perfectly with the Commission's values and we look forward to working closely with their team to identify extraordinary candidates."

As part of their engagement, Public Sector Search & Consulting will work closely with the Commission to develop a comprehensive search strategy, identify potential candidates, and manage the search process.

Prospective candidates must submit the required application materials by May 7, 2023 to apply@publicsectorsearch.com. An application brochure with detailed information about the application process and required materials is available at www.chicago.gov/chicagocommunitycommission.
