Dear Lisa

Hope you are doing well.

I am writing to provide the Board of Ethics with notice that I attended a one day cities clean equitable energy convening in Philadelphia, PA, on Friday, June 2 where certain expenses were covered by a third party.

The convening was of a group called the PJM Cities and Communities Coalition and is the annual in person gathering of the group. The City of Chicago sits on the steering committee of PJM CCC. PJM CCC is grant funded by the Energy Foundation and is administratively supported by the World Resources Institute who is coordinating convening logistics and budget.

PJM CCC covered my airfare to and from Philadelphia, one night in a hotel on Thursday, June 1, as well as local transportation and also provided lunch. I departed for PA on the evening of June 1, attended the meeting on June 2, and returned the evening of June 2 to Chicago.

Please see below for the websites of PJM CCC, the Energy Foundation and WRI.
