Subject: FYI: Travel Recap

Steve – I returned from my trip to Washington DC on Wednesday, March 20th. My travel was paid for via the City’s Urban Area Security Initiative (UASI) grant. On the morning of Tuesday, March 26th, I attended the CrowdStrike Government Threat Summit two blocks away from the Inaugural Billington State and Local Cybersecurity Summit, which began mid-day on the 26th and continued through the 27th. I spoke on “Local Government Cyber Leaders: A View from the Trenches” panel on Wednesday. I attended both conferences in my official capacity.

Please let me know if any additional information is needed.

Thank you,

- Bruce
