Dear Rev. Shin:

City of Chicago policy tells me that I am unable to accept any gifts from people with whom we do business.

Although I appreciate your intention, please understand that any type of gift is not necessary and not expected.

I hope that you understand and will not feel offended in any way regarding your expression of gratitude. I do not need any compensation for working with you to serve your community and neighborhood.

I am returning the check to you in this envelope.

Sincerely,

Marcia Levin
