

Keep Your Heart Healthy

Chicago's Innovative Cardiovascular Screening Program

5,500+ deaths occur in Chicago each year from cardiovascular disease¹

Most Heart Disease is preventable by modifying behaviors²

Educated & screened

11,000

Chicagoans for heart disease

Program Locations

46%

identified at risk for CVD

23%

at risk lacked a medical home

Community Based Partner Organizations

Centro Juan Diego

Chicago Hispanic Health Coalition

Greater Humboldt Park Diabetes Empowerment Center

Family Focus

6,000

referrals provided to community services to support healthy lifestyles

GE Foundation

HEALTHY
CHICAGO

CHICAGO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
FEINBERG
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

¹Mortality due to ICD-10 codes: 100-109, 111, 113, 120-152, 160-169. Death certificate data for Chicago residents provided by Illinois Department of Public Health, 2011.

²Yusuf, Salim, et al. "Effect of potentially modifiable risk factors associated with myocardial infarction in 52 countries (the INTERHEART study): case-control study." The Lancet, 364.9438 (2004): 937-952.