Dear Denise,

I am sending this correspondence to you related to our meeting on Wednesday, August 3, 2016. I am very grateful for the "Thank You" card and gift card to Panera, which you kindly left on my desk. However, it is completely against the Ethics Ordinance as a City of Chicago employee for me to accept any kind of gift(s) from anyone in this role. Therefore, I am returning the gift card to you along with this correspondence.

I truly hope you will understand where I am coming from and this does not leave any hard feelings. Please know that I am very grateful for your kind efforts of appreciation but I am always happy to help you without any additional rewards. I apologize for this inconvenience and confusion, but I just have to do what is needed to make sure I am in full compliance with my ethics expectations.

Once again I am truly sorry and I hope to see you soon as you visit us at the office. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns I can be reached by phone at 773.745.4636. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Magdalena Fudalewicz
