Subject: Conference travel: Guaranteed Income Now

Good morning Steve,

I am writing to report that on September 28-29 I attended the Guaranteed Income Now conference in Atlanta, Georgia. The conference was organized by the Economic Security Project, Mayors for Guaranteed Income and the Guaranteed Income Community of Practice. I represented the City of Chicago by presenting a case study of our Chicago Resilient Communities Pilot on the second day of the conference.

The Economic Security Project provided my hotel accommodation, and meals during the conference were provided to all attendees. On Wednesday, I attended two evening receptions hosted by the Economic Security Project and Economic Security for Illinois.

Thank you,

Nancy Cao (she/her)
