

Millennium Park

OVERVIEW

The popular summer program attracts thousands to spread out a picnic and enjoy the free outdoor film and music at Chicago's architectural gem, the Jay Pritzker Pavilion in Millennium Park.

Millennium Park draws extensive foot traffic on event dates. Crowds frequently near capacity in the park and arrive as early as 3pm to set up – an opportune time to engage visitors with brand activations.

Concerts been selectively curated for mass appeal. They are all FREE and begin at 6:30pm.

The Music Series features music across genres from indie rock to world music and jazz to R&B, appealing to a wide audience of music lovers.
